I know a little village in the north From off whose rampart heights the clarion spring Flings far her yellow-throated messages And fair flower-blazoned heraldry, Till all the lonely little village streets Are sweet with minstrelsy. I know a little village in the north Which Abram shields against the winter s storm, Bold-squaring his broad shoulders to the blast, Kind sentinel, faithful unto the trust Of guarding all the sheltered homes below Where the Quick River runs.
