PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF MEDICAL MILK COMMISSIONS. Held At Chicago Beach Hotel, Chicago, Ill. , June 1, 1908. The meeting was called to order by the President, Dr. Henry L. Coit, of Newark, N. J. In his opening remarks he called attention to the fact that the conference which had been called at Atlantic City one year before had grown into an Association as vigorous as any that bears the name of a medical society. In the one year of its existence it has acquired the confidence of the medical profession of the country, as has been demonstrated by the applications for membership and by the number of delegates appointed by Milk Commissions over the country to this meeting. It has been recognized by the Bureau of Animal Industry, the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service branches of the Government, both of which have issued educational bulletins on its work, and which in a measure is unique, in that it is an organization of physicians, sanitarians and research workers, formed for the single purpose of securing greater good along the line of pure milk. There are present those who come to study milk from the medical standpoint, as sanitarians, as representatives of city and State governments, studying the question as it relates to the death rate; from the sociological standpoint and from the standpoint of the parent. Another class will be present before the meeting is over, viz....
