The services of supply relieves the general headquarters of many details of routine, military, or governmental nature. Its work is mainly concerned with - Transportation and construction. Service of territorial command. Supply, sanitary, and telegraph service (par. 368, F. S. R.). Technical and administrative services shown in diagram on page 2. This headquarters was formerly the headquarters, line of communications, and is an elaboration of the line of communications because of the natural expansion caused by an influx of Army troops. It handles all the duties prescribed for the line of communications in the Field Service Regulations. The headquarters, service of supply, in its work, resembles a centralized war department. It is subordinate to the general headquarters. One of the chief duties of this headquarters is the coordination of the different services. Duties of the technical and administrative services under the supervision of the...
