Excerpt: . . . 11 there is a complex mix of laws, regulations and guidelines that have created significant jurisprudential challenges. We support penalties that are consistent with recent amendments to the Federal sentencing guidelines of the U. S. Sentencing Commission for increased penalties for cultural heritage resources. H. R. 2416 also provides that the proceeds arising from civil and criminal penalties established under the bill may be available for payment to those who provided information in investigations that lead to the civil violations or criminal convictions for which the penalties were assessed. However, the current reward language in Section 11 provides a maximum reward amount that we believe will be ineffective in most cases. We believe that the appropriate reward amount to be offered or paid for assistance in investigations is best determined by the agency and prosecutor based on the significance of the case...
