Lifting the Veil: An Exploration of Islam

By Dr Harrell Rhome

America Star Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a literary, philosophical, geopolitical and theological exploration of the third and latest in a series of three religions, all solidly rooted in Semitic languages, Abrahamic traditions, scriptures and cultures. The first was Talmudic Judaism, the successor faith to the ancient Hebrew religion, centered in the rites and rituals of the Temple. The temple-based cult ended in 70CE, several decades after the time of Jesus. The Roman armies, commanded by the later emperor, Titus, attacked Jerusalem in response to a persistent revolutionary movement in the Latin province of Palestine. As a result, the Temple was razed, burned and destroyed, thus ending the old sacrifice-based cult. The modern religion called Judaism came forth from this, preserving their Hebraic scriptures in the Old Testament as well as accumulating and codifying rabbinical thought and lore in the Talmud. But, Christianity was already an active and growing rival faith, so was not all that much affected by the attack on Jerusalem or the destruction of the Temple. In 325CE it became the official Roman state religion, spreading even more...
