GRIN Verlag, Germany, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Auflage.. 210 x 145 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Linguistics, grade: 1,0, Free University of Berlin (Institute for English Linguistics), course: Second Language Acquisition, 23 entries in the bibliography, language: English, comment: It is commonly known that children with regular faculties and given normal circumstances easily master their native language. Unfortunately, perfect language mastery is rarely the result of SLA. One of the most obvious potential explanations for the lack of success of L2 learners compared to L1 learners is that the acquisition of L2 begins at a later age than that of the mother tongue does. Thus, it has been prevalently assumed that age itself is a predictor of L2 proficiency., abstract: One of the central questions that SLA has tried to answer is why learners of a non-native language (L2) evince such a high degree of interindividual variation in their final attainment relative to the L2 components and skills they have acquired. In order to offer a satisfactory response to this key issue, SLA researchers have posited the existence of a...
