ESSAY ON BURNS

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 54 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. (P. O. Box 37050, Washington, D. C. 20013) : The Office, 1999 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)43622896 Subject: Tax administration and procedure -- United States. Excerpt: . . . B-282811 The study identified problems in various IRS processes that resulted in IRS and taxpayer errors that had to be corrected through abatements. Some examples of IRS errors included miscalculated interest, incorrect posting to accounts, and overlooked support for taxpayers reasonable cause claims. Examples of taxpayer errors included using the wrong form or coupon, omitting or misstating taxpayer identification numbers, and making math mistakes. The study identified 259 potential problems, of which 158 were referred to the responsible IRS functions for further analysis and implementation of changes, if necessary, to solve a problem. The study team determined that the other 101 problems did not merit such a referral because analysts at the service centers could address the problem or no further changes were needed. IRS never formally released a final report on the study results. On June 22, 1999, we met with representatives of the IRS Commissioner Agency Comments from the Customer Service and Examination Divisions as well as the Taxpayer Advocate and Legislative Affairs Offices. These representatives said that our report provided good information and appropriately described the abatement process at selected organizations in the district offices and service centers. We are sending copies of this report to Representative Charles B. Rangel, Ranking Minority Member, House Committee on Ways and Means, and Senator Daniel P. Moynihan, Ranking Minority Member, Senate Committee on Finance. We are also sending copies to the Honorable Robert E. Rubin, Secretary of the Treasury; the Honorable Charles O. Rossotti, Commissioner of Internal Revenue; the Honorable Jacob Lew, Director, Office...
