The parable of the fathers letter--The two truths of the Bible--God is Love. --The Bethlehem plains--Mount Sinai--Mount Calvary--God kind when He punishes-- We ought also to love one another --All men brothers--Why Eva loved Topsy--Christs love to the poor, to sinners, to babes--Imitating Jesus--The two dying grandfathers--Loving our enemies--A little girls enemy--The Bible to be sent all over the world. HERE was once a father who went away from home on a long, far journey, leaving-his boys behind him. When he was going he had many things to say to them. Always, he told them, act as if I were with you. I shall be sure to know, even when far away, how you get on. The boys listened solemnly, for they knew their fathers wisdom and goodness. He gave them many tasks to do when he was gone, charged them to live in peace with each other, and then bade them good-bye. For a while the lads remembered what their father had said, and did very well. But this was not for long. Soon idleness crept in among them; then there were quarrels. After a time their tasks seemed quite forgotten. The brothers had all become lazy, then sullen, then cross. Over hill and dale they wandered, quite careless of their parents farewell words, and scarcely ever so much as speaking to one another. All their happiness was gone; yet they did not wish their father back, for they feared his anger. They...
