Excerpt: .Subsidiary Force, was under the orders of our Commandant, making it, on the whole, one of the most extensive and desirable commands in India. Whence Secunderabad (literally meaning the abode of Alexander) derived its nomenclature I could never ascertain. It is usually called by the natives Houssain Saugur, from its vicinity to a large artificial lake of that name, and is more fre 124 THE CAMP. quently known by them as the Lushkur, or camp, which was, in fact, its original form when first established in 1798 to protect the Nizam against his Mahratta foes. However, John Company finding it answer his purpose to keep up a force whose expenses were defrayed by his friends, the camp by degrees assumed the appearance of a straggling town: barracks and places of arms were constructed: the officers tents, first covered in during the rains with matting or thatched roofs, by degrees assumed their present appearance, though many of them retain to this day the shape of the canvass tenement on which they were first moulded: and a large town has insensibly sprung up on the rocky and barren spot, which some years ago was only tenanted by the cheetah and jackal, who, even to this day, leaving the shelter of their rocks, frequently wander through the roads and ACCOMMODATIONS. 125 streets of the Cantonment during the hours of darkness. We have now (or rather had, for I know not what alteration the march of intellect may...
