Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In 1880 he published Natural Science and Religion, two lectures delivered to the Theological School of Yale College, before a critical audience, who listened with the deepest interest to what was, in some points, his most advanced view of natural selection. We need not dwell on a subject about which so much has lately been written by far abler pens than ours. Briefly stated, Gray was probably the best expounder of Darwinian principles, - meaning thereby those actually advocated by Darwin himself, and excluding the wild deductions attached to the original theory by those who deserve the name of Darwinissimists rather than Darwinists, - although he himself regarded natural selection as a less efficient cause than it was assumed to be by Darwin. There is no doubt that natural selection operates; the open question is, what do...
