The Christian Olympics

By S. E. Gregg

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. A new book in the religionspirituality market informs readers about the most enormous and longest competition the world has ever seen, the Christian Olympics, otherwise known as the Christian race that the apostle Paul wrote about nearly 2, 000 years ago. In The Christian Olympics: Going for the Gold Crowns, author S. E. Gregg unveils the Bibles comparison of the Christian race to the Olympic Games. Paul wrote to a Hellenistic culture--one steeped in Greek philosophy, culture, and athletics--and so for the Christians of his day, marathon foot races run by Greek Olympians provided the perfect metaphor for the endurance, longevity, and persistence needed to successfully finish the race of faith. Those who do, Gregg reminds us, will receive crowns of gold from the Lord Himself. A new understanding and exhilaration for the Christian life, pursued with the vigor of a spiritual athlete, will help readers to endure their problems and suffering. As a result, Gregg hopes to stoke the fires of passionate living for God and encourage readers to look forward to what is ahead. Weaving in applications for both individuals and families, Gregg developed...
